I am advised that in compliance with the Fair Credit Reporting Act a routine investigation may be made concerning my character and general reputation. I have the right to make a written request within three months from the date of signature for a summary disclosure of the nature and scope of the investigation. I agree that LATA and my previous employers shall not be held liable in any respect if any employment offer is not tendered, is withdrawn, or my employment is terminated due to falsity of the statements and answers in this application form and resume. I affirm that the information provided above is complete and true to the best of my knowledge. LATA is a drug-free workplace. As an applicant, I understand that all offers of employment are contingent upon the successful completion of a urinalysis test for illegal drug use.
